TWO SONGS

HOW LONG & TO-DAY

WORDS BY

Mrs MOULTON.

and

C. G. ROSSETTI.

MUSIC BY

DOROTHY WHALE.

HOW LONG

If on my grave the summer grass were growing,
Or heedless winter winds about it blowing,
In joyous June, or desolate December,
How long, Sweet-heart, How long would you remember?
How long, dear Love, how long?

Too gay in June you might be to regret me,
And living lips might woo you to forget me,
But ah! Sweetheart, I think you would remember,
When winds were weary, In your lifes December;
So long, dear Love, so long.

Mrs Moulton

TO-DAY

All the World is out in leaf, Half the World in Flower,
Earth has waited weeks & weeks, for this special hour:
Faint the rainbow comes & goes, on a sunny shower:
All the World is out in leaf, Half the World in flower!

Life breaks forth to right & left; pipe wild-wood notes cheery,
Never-the-less there are the dead, Fast asleep & weary
Fast asleep and weary
To-day we live, to-day we love, Wake and listen deary
